WHITE RIBBON REMEDY.

Indorsed by members of W. C. T. U.

Mrs. MOORE, Superintendent of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, writes: "I have tested White Ribbon Remedy on very obstinate drunkards and the cures have been many. In many cases the Remedy was given secretly. I cheerfully recommend and indorse White Ribbon Remedy. Members of our union are delighted to find a i actical and economical treatment to aid us in our temperance work."

Mrs. WEST, President of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, states: "I know of so many people redeemed from the curse of drink by the use of White Ribbon Remedy that I earnestly request you to give it a trial." For WEDDING, AT HAMLINE CHURCH TODAY.

tivities-Tonight's Events-Inter-

Recent Marriages and Attendant Fesesting Personal Notes.

A quiet wedding ceremony, that made Miss Elizabeth E. Clements the bride of Mr. Arthur B. Bryan, was celebrated at St. Aloysius' Church yesterday evening, in the presence of a few of the most intimate friends of the bride and groom. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Nannie Clements, and by Miss Eva Bryan. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan are well-known young residents of the Bryan's Point neighborhood, in Charles county, Maryland, and have a host of friends in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan returned to their home in Maryland this morning on the steamer Samuel J. Pentz.

Mr. Myddelton Woodville and Miss Katharine C. Buckey were quietly married last night at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Charles A. Buckey, 3411 U street. Rev. Wm. Tayloe Snyder, rector of the Church of the Incarnation, who is a cousin Church of the incarnation, who is a cousin of the groom, performed the marriage ceremony. Mr. Cadwalader Woodville, brother of the groom, officiated as best man. There were no bridesmaids. Only the immediate family and a few intimate friends were present. After the ceremony the bridal couple left on an extended northern trip. A pretty wedding took place at Hamline Church at noon today, Miss Mabel Alberta

Donnelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Donnelly, and Mr. Edward Everett Jones Jones and Mr. Harry C. Jones stood up with the couple, and Messrs. J. M. A. Watson, Fred Donnelly, Douglas Simms and Jesse Nicholson were the ushers. Mr. Henry A. Grady and Miss Annie Graham were married this morning in Jallace, N. C. The groom has many friends in Washington, having been connected with the geodetic survey, and was also the private secretary to his father, B. F. Grady, while a representative in Congress. The bride is the only daughter of the late Dr.

D. McL. Graham of North Carolina, and is a niece of Dr. Walter C. Murphy of this city. The couple will live in Clinton, N. C., where Mr. Grady is practicing law. Miss Bryan and Miss Eleanor Bryan hav returned home from Magnolia, Mass.

Miss Juliet Maud Duvall and Dr. Hanson r. A. Lemon will be married at the Metropolitan Church tonight at 7:30. Miss Annieta Landon King and Mr. Henry W. Freeman will be married at St. Andrew's. Miss Anna Belle Carpenter and Mr. Charles H. Henney and Miss Mabel Burrows and Mr. William C. Barr are two other couples whose weddings will occur this evening whose weddings will occur this evening

St. Mark's Pro-Cathedral was the scen St. Mark's Pro-Cathedral was the scene of a pretty wedding last night, Miss Hattie W. Dalton and Mr. Harry C. Cragg being the contracting parties. La France roses, white cosmos and palms were used for church decorations, while the bride carried a bunch of bride roses. The bride entered the church with her father and they were preceded by Miss Lyda Dalton, sister of the bride, who was maid of honor. The groom and Mr. Claud Livingston, who was best man, met the bride and her father at the chancel and the ceremony was perthe chancel and the ceremony was per-formed by the Rev. Levering Devries, the rector of the Pro-Cathedral. After the ceremony the couple held a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dalton, No. 505 B street southeast. The bride was gowned in white crepe de chine, trimmed with rose point lace, while the maid of honor wore a dress lace, while the maid of honor wore a dress of light blue crepe over taffeta and point rose lace. The ushers were Theodore Dalton, A. H. Gaddis, George Hebbard and Mr. Long. Mr. and Mrs. Cragg will spend two weeks at Niagara and Buffalo and will return after a trip through Canada. They will be at home after November 15 at 809 B street southeast.

Christine Buckey were quietly married last evening in the presence of the two immedi-ate families, at the residence of the bride's mother on Georgetown Heights. The cere-mony was performed by the Rev. William Tayloe Snyder, rector of the Church of the Incarnation and a cousin of the groom. Mr. Cadwalader Woodville acted as best man. The bride, a distinguished looking Smoot, Coffer & McCalley girl, was very becomingly attired in a gown of white mull richly trimmed with rare old lace and carried in her hand a shower bouquet of white nephetos roses. After a collation the happy couple left for a train to the north and on their return will reside at 3045 N street. Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Southard Parker have issued cards for the wedding recep-tion of their daughter, Helen Wilson, and Mr. Henry Kellogg Willard, Wednesday afternoon, November 6, from 1 until halfpast 2 o'clock, at 1738 Connecticut avenue. The couple will be at home Wednesdays in January at 928 Westminster street. Postmaster H. W. Marburger, wife and daughter, of Denver, Penn., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul S. Gable of K street Mrs. Teunis S. Hamlin will be at home from 3 to 5 o'clock on Thursday at 1306 Connecticut avenue in order to give the friends of Dr. Mary Pierson Eddy in the city the opportunity of seeing her before her return as a medical missionary to Syria. A farewell meeting is to be held in the Church of the Covenant for Dr. Eddy Thursday evening. Dr. Eddy has been for seven years the medical missionary of the Women's Presbyterial Society of Wash-ington and leaves a host of warm personal friends who will thus have the opportunity of wishing her God speed before she returns to her chosen work.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson celebrated their fifth anniversary last evening at their residence, 470 N street southwest. The parlors were handsomely decorated with palms and ferns. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Leppard, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hellen and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. Humphery, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Erskine, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Anderson, Miss M. L. Anderson and Mr. J. Piles. A quiet wedding was celebrated Monday evening at the rectory of St. Patrick's evening at the rectory of St. Patrick's Church, this city, the contracting parties being Miss Eularia M. Gooding of Portsmouth, Va., and Mr. Robinson W. Gatewood of Hampton, Va. Only a few intimate friends were present. The bride and groom are both well known in Virginia, also in Wa jington, which will be their futures. Mr. Ed. M. Grinder and Miss Mary G. E

Sanfellipo were married by Rev. Father O'Brien at the parsonage of St. Peter's Church yesterday in the presence of rela-tives of the contracting parties. They left later on an extended tour east. Miss E. H. Gelston of East Capitol street, who has been seriously ill for the past two months, is convalescing at Berkeley Springs, W. Va. Her sister, Miss Hattle, is Miss Rachel A. Richardson left the city this morning for Harrisonburg, Va., where she will attend the marriage of her brother, Mr. C. B. Richardson. Owing to the recent death of Mrs. Richardson, mether of the groom, the marriage will be a private one, witnessed only by relatives and immediate friends of the two families. Miss Ada M. Berry and Mr. John J. Nee nan, both of Richmond, were married at St. Patrick's Church Monday. After the cere-mony supper was served at the home of the bride's aunt, 923 12th street. The couple will make an extended trip north. Many handsome presents were received.

SECOND OF THE SERIES Meeting of Anti-Saloon League Ad-dressed by Mr. Banks.

An address on the evils of the liquor habit and its danger to the state was delivered last night at the First Congregational Church by Rev. Louis Albert Banks. pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, New York city. The meeting was the second of the sixth annual revival series of the Anti-Saloon League of the District of Columbia. The church was crowded and Rev. Luther B. Wilson precrowded and Rev. Luther B. Wilson presided. Tonight's meeting is to be held at Mount Vernon Place M. E. Church South.

"The Duty of Christian Citizens in This Hour" was held by Mr. Banks to be chiefly a union of church influences and a fuller confidence in the ultimate result of the fight against the liquor element. The speaker believed in absolute prohibition. He agreed to stand with any one, "republican or democrat, Gentile or Jew, who is against the saloon." Finally, if he could not get all he wanted, he would take all FILES AMENDED BILL.

Joseph rodfield Seeks to Have Treas-urer Roberts Enjoined.

Joseph Bradfield has filed an amended bill in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia in connection with his proceedings to enjoin the treasurer of the United States from paying out any of the appro-priation of $50,000 made by Congress for annex buildings at Providence Hospital. A demurer to the former bill in equity was sustained by the court, but leave to amend was granted the complainant.

Mr. Bradfield claims that the act carrying the appropriation is unconstitutional, in that it appropriates public funds for the benefit and use of a sectarian institution. In the amended bill the District Commissioners and the board of trustees of the hospital are named as co-defendants with Treasurer Roberts. Mr. Bradfield has twice before brought similar suits where before brought similar suits where other institutions were the beneficiaries under acts of Congress, but has been unsuccess ful in having the treasurer enjoined.

DOYLE'S TRIAL FOR MURDER Defendant Charged With Causing

Death of Howard Dent. Charles Doyle, charged with the murder of Howard Dent, July 18 last, will be placed on trial Monday morning next in Criminal Court No. 1, Justice Anderson presiding. The crime is alleged to have been committed at the stable of the United States Express Company, on C street between 41/2 and 6th streets southwest, and is said to have been the result of a quarrel between the two men over a triffing matter. District Attorney Ashley M. Gould, assisted by Mr. Taylor, will conduct the prosecu-tion, and this will be Mr. Gould's first ap-pearance in a murder cause since his ele-vation to his present office.
